Borealis Service

Designed to enhance your travel experience to and from the Twin Cities, Milwaukee, Chicago, and points in-between, traveling on the Borealis is not just a means of transportation; it's a step into the future of sustainable, convenient, and comfortable travel. With spacious seating, at seat power outlets, and free Wi-Fi, redefine the way you travel. On the Borealis, you can unwind, read, work, or simply enjoy the passing landscapes in a peaceful and comfortable setting.

Did You Know?

The Borealis adds a second, daily round-trip passenger rail service to the 411-mile corridor used by Amtrak's long distance Empire Builder and Hiawatha routes, enhancing regional intercity transportation in Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Illinois.

Thruway Bus Connections

It's easy to connect throughout the Midwest on Amtrak Midwest Thruway Bus Service. With guaranteed connections to Amtrak trains, modern intercity buses feature restrooms, roomy reclining seating with leg rests and individual lighting. Dedicated Thruway bus services only carry Amtrak passengers and are accessible and lift equipped. Whether it's the sights or the people you love to see, Amtrak can get you there.

Special Offers for Students

College is a time for adventure, but it also means working with a tight budget. Students traveling in the Midwest between ages 13-25 have the chance to save 15% on Borealis travel and connect to other Midwest trains to locations in Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, and Wisconsin. Relax, stay connected and maybe even get some schoolwork done along the way. Visit Amtrak.com/Midwest for details.

Join Amtrak Guest Rewards for Free

As a member of Amtrak Guest Rewards, you'll enjoy exclusive benefits and offers, as well as an enhanced travel experience both on and off the train.
